I. INTRODUCTION

A year ago July 2023, I wrote one of my finest papers , Decades of Exile into the depth: A case study of the Stolen Kingdom of our Chagossian brothers and the Failure of the British Government to redress their mistake, prejudice and damage caused, (IJHSSI) ISSN (Online): 2319 – 7722, ISSN (Print): 2319 – 7714 www.ijhssi.org ||Volume 12 Issue 7|| July 2023 || PP. 121-124

The case was as follows :

Unlawful Act by United Kingdom s177-178, P47-48

As stated in The decision of the Court was having found that the decolonization of Mauritius was not conducted in a manner consistent with the right of peoples to self-determination, it follows that the United Kingdom's continued administration of the Chagos Archipelago constitutes a wrongful act entailing the international responsibility of that State (United Kingdom v. Albania), Merits, Judgment, I.C.J. Reports 1949, p. 23; Gabčíkovo-Nagymaros Project (Hungary/Slovakia), Judgment, I.C.J. Reports 1997, p. 38, para. 47; see also Article 1 of the Articles on Responsibility of States for Internationally Wrongful Acts). It is an unlawful act of a continuing character which arose as a result of the separation of the Chagos Archipelago from Mauritius. Accordingly, the United Kingdom is under an obligation to bring an end to its administration of the Chagos Archipelago as rapidly as possible, thereby enabling Mauritius to complete the decolonization of its territory in a manner consistent with the right of peoples to self determination.

II. DISCUSSION

An agreement was announced to have been made between the US-UK-Mauritius authorities for the resettlement of the Chagossian people and compensations. It is a historical victory for my Brothers of Chagos and the islands of the Indian Ocean : In this noble fight against oppression on a smaller (a speck of dust compared to UK) defenseless peaceful multicultural developing country of Mauritius , on one side the UK opposition Conservatives, as heard within the UK Parliament House of Commons (Oct 2024) qualified Mauritius as ‘a Disgusting government’^{5,6,7,8} , on the other side Prime Minister Sir Keir Starmer Leader of UK Labour party of His Majesty King Charles III's government kept his words and promises to address the wrongs of the past, the welfare of the Chagos people, mutual respect, trust, security and prosperity for Commonwealth Partners. Some Whites maybe forgot we are no more in times of Slavery whereby slaves were whipped mercilessly without having the power to riposte. Sir Keir Starmer a role model of leadership and management.

III. FINDINGS

An agreement was announced in October 2024 , 2,3,4 which read as follows ; Beginning of statement

JOINT STATEMENT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENTS OF THE REPUBLIC OF MAURITIUS AND THE UNITED KINGDOM OF GREAT BRITAIN AND NORTHERN IRELAND CONCERNING THE CHAGOS ARCHIPELAGO, INCLUDING DIEGO GARCIA The Prime Minister of the Republic of Mauritius and the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland today confirm that they have reached an historic political agreement on the exercise of sovereignty over the Chagos Archipelago. Following two years of negotiation, this is a seminal moment in our relationship and a demonstration of our enduring commitment to the peaceful resolution of disputes and the rule of law. Negotiations have been conducted in a constructive and respectful manner, as equal sovereign States, on the basis of international law, and with the intention of resolving all outstanding issues between the United Kingdom and Mauritius concerning the Chagos Archipelago, including those relating to its former inhabitants. Today's political agreement is subject to the finalisation of a treaty and supporting legal instruments, which both sides have committed to complete as quickly as possible. Under the terms of this treaty the United Kingdom will agree that Mauritius is sovereign over the Chagos Archipelago, including Diego Garcia. At the same time, both our countries are committed to the need, and will agree in the treaty, to ensure the long-term, secure and effective operation of the existing base on Diego Garcia which plays a vital role in regional and global security. For an initial period of 99 years, the United Kingdom will be authorised to exercise with respect to Diego Garcia the sovereign rights and authorities of Mauritius required to ensure the continued operation of the base well into the next century. The treaty will address wrongs of the past and demonstrate the commitment of both parties to support the welfare of Chagossians. Mauritius will now be free to implement a programme of resettlement on the islands of the Chagos Archipelago, other than Diego Garcia, and the UK will capitalise a new trust fund, as well as separately provide other support, for the benefit of Chagossians. It will also herald a new era of economic, security and environmental partnership between our two nations. To enable this partnership the UK will provide a package of financial support to Mauritius. This will include an indexed annual payment for the duration of the agreement and the establishment of a transformational infrastructure partnership, underpinned by UK grant funding, to deliver strategic projects generating meaningful change for ordinary Mauritians and boosting economic development across the country. More broadly, the UK and Mauritius will cooperate on environmental protection, maritime security, combating illegal fishing, irregular migration and drug and people trafficking

within the Chagos Archipelago, with the shared objective of securing and protecting one of the world's most important marine environments. This will include the establishment of a Mauritian Marine Protected Area. In resolving all outstanding issues between the United Kingdom and Mauritius, the treaty will open a new chapter in our shared history, one which will continue to be based on mutual respect and trust as close Commonwealth partners committed to the security and prosperity of the Indian Ocean Region. In reaching today's political agreement, we have enjoyed the full support and assistance of our close partners, the United States of America and the Republic of India. End of statement

IV. CONCLUSION

At this date no official agreement has been made public. Whatever deal the US-Uk-Mauritius government agree upon and sign, the Chagossians must get out winner of this deal, which includes a financial compensation and maybe even with a life long pension.

Long live the King
