Abstract: The journey of human life from forest to land is a long one. Say goodbye to the nomadic life and settle down for a settled life Civilized Beginning Life was limited to basic necessities only. The life of a civilized country was becoming more complicated day by day and his demands were doubling. Adaptation to collective organized life became inevitable and necessary. A systematic life necessitated the fixing of community life. As a result, the institutions of family, society and the state were born, and he created institutions capable of governing himself. As a result of this, it came from the monarchy to the present-day democracy. Because of that, the rise of vast kingdoms, at the same time, some social aristocracy and immoral practices rose up and became a great tragedy of life. Among these were racism, sexism, asterism, and classism.

I. Introduction:

Apart from this, rituals like infanticide, human sacrifice, animal sacrifice, child marriage, Satisahagamana system and polygamy took root. Thus India became a land of inequality and differences. It became a question of prestige for one class and a question of life for another class. Consequently, untold humanitarian carnage is rampant throughout this country Walked. Due to this the world became humiliated in front of Kulakoti. Bharti's Swadeshi India is a never-ending conflict of Swadharmis. A war broke out. As a result, Endianness became like a broken and shattered mirror. A large part of the country is made up of people who have no sense of identity The population was crushed. The majority of Indians of Swadeshi Swadharma.

As a semi-nationalist, he remained in a semi-conscious state. It is the fruit of its glory for thousands of years this country had to come under the rule of foreigners. Poverty, sighing, discouragement, disunity, and internal conflicts of Swajati and Swadharmi Yadav. The country was torn by strife. By churning the sea of demons, the precious poems Ramayana and Mahabharata were wasted on the story of the Yadavi conflict of the Swadeshi Swajati Swadharmis of this country. With the birth of Mahatma Gandhi, the universalist, Mother India had to be freed from long-standing paratantra. Consequently, in the constitution of independent India, the framers of the constitution made it inevitable and necessary to include many facilities to bring the disaffected Dalits like Shudratishudra, Anarya, Antyaja, Panchama, Pariha, Dassus, Danava, Daityas, Harijans and Girijanas in the modern language into the mainstream of the nation. It was like oil in the sand. The Constitution considered the supreme law, failed here. And hopeless. The dignity and respect of the nation have been soiled by color, caste and ambiguities. Consequently, it is history that has rotted in the clutches of aliens for thousands of years. human beings Due to the built-up inequalities, the lives of millions of people became unbearable.

Exploitation was the birthright of certain caste, class, caste and sect communities, but it became the duty of some castes to be exploited. Such a concern. The Hindu system of India had reached a stage where the emancipation of the exploited castes from the status quo was impossible. Philosophers like Buddha, Basava, Karl Marx Ambedkar and Jagjivanaram had to be born in this country to save us from such a situation. A crusade had to be preached for lost human rights. This country had to witness the unparalleled revolutionary step of the 12th century when Sankaveyananta was installed in the top row of the Anvabhaya Mandapa, which is credited as the world's first parliament, and addressed as Mahatai. So his strong stances on untouchables, dalits and women need to be known. Therefore, the need to get inspiration and determination from such thoughts is a matter of concern even today in philosophy, but in reality such a harmonious life has become a windmill without coming to this country. The birth of a new visionary to liberate the oppressed from such a worrisome condition was in dire need of Mother India, and a new avatar had to rise in this holy land to fulfil it. That is Mahatma Gandhi's world

It should be seen here that if the emancipation of the untouchables lies in the emancipation of the country, it is another argument that the emancipation of the country lies in the emancipation of the untouchables. The truth is that these two types of thinking are the elixir of total liberation. But one word is true here. The country got independence. But only the people living in the country have not got freedom till today, time and again the appropriateness and relevance of Gandhiji's thoughts have stood up in this country. The whole thought of Mahatma Gandhi is that evils like untouchability, and religion is not for man, so man should be for religion are seen If Hinduism is reformed. There is no doubt that Gandhiji wanted to build a secure all-round development nation. Varnajati suffered from untouchability as much as Dalits in this country, women were also exploited like never seen in this country due to gender discrimination. Women, who constitute half of the total population, have been subjected to religious laws for centuries. It was not her right to sit next to the husband in Yajyagadis and help the husband in his work. It should be noted that in a sonless house only in some cases the daughter inherits the Vedas and not because of her right to equality. The entry of women in the important political institutions of the Vedas such as sabha and samiti was denied, in the times like Ramayana and Mahabharata, Marusha had a system to show their prowess and groom a woman under the rules like the Swayamvara system, women did not have the right to choose their life partner. If Sita, Draupadi, Ahalya, Tara and Mandodari are known for their fidelity and not for infidelity, Sita should be tested for her suspicions. Such as to eradicate centuries of social ills, genderless

II. Conclusion:

This country needed the birth of a Yugamarasha to free everyone from all exploitation, especially India from the British. Mahatma Gandhi is that epochal man. There is no doubt that their effort, unceasing struggle, the compassion and motherly heart that they had, should be given as a boon to India, Dalits and women who are suffering under foreign tactics. A word of truth. That is - freedom for the country - - at least this country
