I. INTRODUCTION

When you miss someone you love, there is a profound sadness within your soul. The paper mentions of the poems Steadfast of Finley (2022) who says that our love will keep on growing stronger , Time and distance of Heart (2022) , who says that Oh I pray one day fate delivers you into my arms, the poem Absence of Mckay (2022) that says that I await your written word, To stir my fluent blood as never your presence stirred. Sun and moon of Kayler (2022) who says that With you, peace and ease surrounds. Someone from Derbyshire (2022) who says that You are someone I can't forget. You will always be in my heart.

II. DISCUSSION

The first poem is Steadfast of Finley (2022) who says that our love will keep on growing stronger

Steadfast

The miles are long and far and wide,
But my love for you will never subside.
My heart will continue strong and true,
Steadfast in my love for you.

You never need to fret or fear;
My only love is for you my dear.

It hurts to be so far from you,
But a love like ours will make it through.
Keep holding on a little longer;
Our love will keep on growing stronger.

The second poem is Time and distance of Heart (2022) , who says that Oh I pray one day fate delivers you into my arms

Time And Distance

Destiny's hands shows the right chosen way
When to let go, when to cut loose in its rhyme
He has the final say to our paths in time
To what so ever draws in our soft palms
My love will perpetually be true to your heart
Time is passing by, something we can't undermine
Time travels without a pause to croon its chant
Even distances cuddle us, meddling in our affairs
my love will forever remain to see your smiling
face
I'll be your shining star, your guiding light
Watching you from the distance, day and night
For my love is here, no matter what you do
I shall be here by your side, loving you
We will always be each in others hearts
Even if the oceans divide us apart
Even distance has been a thorn in our lives
Whiles love is the rose that bonded our hearts
our lips pine for each others touch
promise, the oceans will not blow away our love
Our hands long to be hand in hand
Our hearts yearn to live entwine
For the rest of our lives
Oh I pray one day fate delivers you into my arms

The third poem is Absence of Mckay (2022) that says that I await your written word, To stir my fluent blood as never your presence stirred.

Absence

Your words dropped into my heart like pebbles into
a pool,
Rippling around my breast and leaving it melting
cool.
Your kisses fell sharp on my flesh like dawn-dews
from the limb,
Of a fruit-filled lemon tree when the day is young
and dim.
But a silence vasty-deep, oh deeper than all these
ties
Now, through the menacing miles, brooding
between us lies.
And more than the songs I sing, I await your
written word,
To stir my fluent blood as never your presence stirred.

The fourth poem is Sun and moon of Kayler (2022) who says that With you, peace and ease surrounds.

Sun And Moon

You were like the sun who brought light
Into my cold, dark, and lifeless night.
You made me realize that no matter what I do,
My life will always revolve around you.
Just when I thought that darkness was all around,
You showed me your light and picked me up off
the ground.
In your arms, love and care is what I found.

With you, peace and ease surrounds.
We are like the sun and the moon.
Far in every way, but I wish to see you soon.
We are miles and miles apart,
But never forget we are always connected in our heart.

The fifth poem is Someone from Derbyshire (2022) who says that You are someone I can't forget. You will always be in my heart.

Someone Owain

No distance can keep us apart.

You are someone I can't forget.

You will always be in my heart.

I know I'll be with you yet.

I will tell you from my heart

We will never drift apart.

You keep me from being blue,

And I love you for being you...

III.

IV. CONCLUSION

Come to me my Queen, I miss you, I love you and want you as wife. I want to see my baby grow up in front of me and have more children with you.
